	19-12-2005 Shri Sameer Sahu, counsel for the petitioner. Shri P.S. Koshy, Dy. Advocate General for the State of Chhattisgarh/ respondent No.1. Shri Ranbir Singh Marhas, counsel for respondent No.2. Heard. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner's father died on 3-1-2002. He further submits that the petitioner has been appointed as a Shiksha Karmi on compassionate ground, whereas the petitioner should be appointed on the post of Assistant Teacher. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 submits that the petitioner has been appointed as Shiksha Karmi Grade-III against the post of regular Teacher. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that for the present the petitioner may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within a period of one month, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within a period of four months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.
